| 課程概述 | The course is designed for students who are interested in developing their English skills for the purposes of traveling or working in the field of tourism and hospitality. |
| 課程目標 | The language used in the service industry is quite different from our daily spoken English; thus, students will have to learn professional vocabulary and modify their ways of speaking and behaving. The course will help students 1) get familiar with the tourism and restaurant industries through dialogs about various kinds of situations; 2) learn the essential grammar through simple sentences and clear charts; 3) strengthen your listening comprehension and improve your speaking skills; 4) deepen your understanding of English for the service industry. |
| 課程大綱 | Students will learn 1. how to fill out important travel documents, 2. how to book flights and hotels, 3. how to navigate their way through customs, 4. how to find service offered upon arrival at a destination, 5. how to get around in an English-speaking environment, 6. what to do for entertainment in various cities At the end of this semester, students will have a strong understanding of English usage within the tourism industry. They'll also develop the ability to fully express their own ideas and present travel information in English clearly and effectively. In addition, reading and writing strategies will as well be improved through instruction and in-class exercises. |
