| 課程概述   | Writing is one of the most essential tools in communication. In addition, writing can help us organize what occurs to us in general. This course aims to provide students with some direct and concrete ideas of thinking and logical reasoning in lieu of English writing.  |
| 課程目標   | a.To get the general background of what role of writing can play in academic work.b.To put into use what we have learned in English writing.c.To familiarize students with the essential reasoning in writing.   |
| 課程大綱   | 寫作是非常重要的溝通方式之一，尤其是英文寫作，不但與文法知識、詞彙語意、前後文之貫穿，思路之脈絡邏輯，均大有關係。因此，英文寫作成為整體英文能力的表現。要教好寫作，除了理論之外，實務運用更為珍貴。本課程將從思考與邏輯開始，英文文法為骨架，心理語言學理論為輔，兼顧理論與實務，一方面訓練學生的思考方式，另方面傳授寫作教學的內容。  |
| 英文大綱   | English writing has been a very important skill in thinking and reasoning. To EFL learners, writing is only grammar. But it is more concerned with the integrity of English ability in nature. The use of vocabulary, syntactic structure, organization of ideas or concepts plays a rather significant role. On this background, this course aims to lead the learners to the new field in which writing is independent in terms of thinking. Some basic ideas of English would also be taught. In addition, theoretical issues like the language processing would be provided. |
